

The Committee for Values Based Training & The SRV Implementation Project are pleased to announce a workshop entitled

Called to Serve: Discovering the Service Worker's Role

to be held on Friday, May 23, 2008 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm (check-in at 8:30) in the Brazelton Lecture Hall at Seven Hills, 81 Hope Avenue, Worcester, MA

Workshop description: This workshop invites participants to explore the nature of what it means to serve those in need, particularly those devalued by society. The workshop covers the following topics:

- ▶ The Social, Cultural & Historical Contexts of Service to Others
- ▶ Lessons Learned from These Different Contexts of Service
- ▶ Principles of Service to Others
- ▶ Guidelines & Strategies for Service
- ▶ Blocks to Providing Relevant & Effective Service to Others
- ▶ Fruits of Offering Relevant & Effective Service

This workshop is based on the work of Dr. Wolfensberger of Syracuse University, who developed Social Role Valorization, a coherent set of ideas for addressing devaluation.

Cost: $95 (includes handouts, light refreshments & lunch). Take advantage of the group discount: buy 5 tuitions & send 6 people. Please send your name & address, plus check made out to The SRV Implementation Project, to Workshop Registrar, SRVIP, 74 Elm Street, Worcester, MA 01609.
